

SOCIETY

The annual moving in Richmond has begun. Before it is ended about half the people in the city will have been transferred from one point to another. The wise people are trying to come in ahead of the September rush, when wagons are not to be had and goods are fetched and carried with such irreverent handling, that owners resolve to stop buying antiques until they have a home and an abiding place, where family fetiches can be set up undisturbed by the recurring turmoil of early autumn.

And much that is transitory around it, the tranquil serenity of the ground and building at Woman's Club offers a charming contrast, green turf and blossoming borders back and front make a pretty picture for the eye to rest upon. Within the art of the decorator and the skill of the painter's brush have rendered the entire suite of chambers fresh and beautiful, the picture rooms having been rehung under Mrs. John Montague's direction. Mrs. W. A. Cunningham, who has been busy all summer over the work of club renovation, has superintended, during the past week, the placing of new furniture in the ladies' dressing room, now a model of good taste and completeness.

Announcement of Great Interest.

An announcement that is of great interest to Richmond and Tidewater society, relative to the approaching marriage of Miss Clara Guillemine, of this city, to Judge Samuel Cecil Graham, of Tidewater, Va.

The marriage will take place quietly, the nuptials being celebrated at 10 West Grace Street, where Miss Guillemine has had her home for several years.

She is the daughter of the late Madame Clarissa Guillemine, and has spent the greater part of her life in Richmond, where she has been associated with leading educational institutions as an instructor of French and music classes.

Miss Guillemine has also been a member of Woman's Club from its earliest organization and is most efficient secretary and treasurer. No woman in Richmond is more highly appreciated socially and professionally and mingled with congratulations for her happiness are regrets that new duties and responsibilities will take her away from her friends and her interests here.

Judge Graham is one of the best known men in Southwest Virginia, his position on the bench and in the State Bar Association, giving him a statewide reputation. He has a large Richmond acquaintance and frequently spends much time here in winter.

Judge and Mrs. Graham will leave Richmond immediately after their marriage. Later in the autumn they will go to City Point, on St. John's River, Florida, where Judge Graham has a winter home.

Miss Guillemine is now the guest of Mrs. H. W. Davis, of Sandy Spring, Md., but she will return to Richmond in September, to remain until after her marriage.

Miss Wade's Engagement.

Dr. and Mrs. William M. Wade announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lucy Harrison, to Dr. Albert Allen Speed, the son of Dr. E. M. Speed, of Stafford County, a graduate of the Medical College of Virginia, who is now located at Arden in Southwest Virginia.

The wedding will be celebrated early in October.

November Wedding of Importance.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Shaw, of Knoxville, Tenn., have announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Sarah Marcella, to Charles H. Talbot, Jr., formerly of Richmond, now of New York, the marriage to take place in November.

Miss Hawk was one of Knoxville's charming and popular debutantes of last winter. Her family are prominent in the social life of the city and Mr. Shaw, one of its most influential citizens, has recently retired from active business and moved to "River Bend," a beautiful estate of 200 acres, some five miles outside of Knoxville. Mr. Hawk's father and his three sons reside at River Bend by night and spend in Southampton County, moving to St. Louis, Missouri, in 1910, where they became prominent in mandarin and social life of the city.

Mr. Talbot, a large number of friends in his native city, who will be deeply interested in this announcement, and congratulate him on his good fortune in securing a bride.

At the Warrenton Horse Show. Among visitors to the Warrenton, Home Show which is scheduled for August 21 and 22, and will be largely attended by Richmond and Tidewater people, are Mrs. Anne Randolph, who is visiting the Misses Brainerd, of Norfolk, at their country estate at Buckhorn, Va.; Miss Louise Hines, who is visiting Miss Elizabeth Loomis at her country home near Upperville, Va., with the Misses Brainerd, and Miss Talbot, Misses Brainerd, Joseph Brainerd, Misses Brainerd, and Marshall Parryette, all of Baltimore, Md.

Miss Marie Palmer will attend the and graduated as a civil engineer at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute. Since his graduation he has been kept pretty busy at his profession, working part of the time near Trenton, N. J., and then in Texas. He is now in Norfolk and has been for nearly a year. His father has been treasurer of King William County for many years. His mother was Mrs. Lella Blake, of Middlesex County.

Season Now at Height.

The season at summer resorts, the vital points of social life, is now at its height. A week and a half more will see the first day of September, which invariably sounds the recall of many Richmonders to Richmond.

October brides will get busy over their trousseaus. Young matrons will be looking after their school girls and boys, and debutantes making ready to enter society. The early autumn season is always delightful, and the bustle of return and settling down for the winter adds a spice of briskness and loveliness that individualizes the time.

Miss Montague in Washington.

Among the attractive additions to Washington society, when former Governor Montague enters upon his term as Congressman from the Third Virginia District, will be Miss Gay Montague, his debutante daughter. Father and daughter have always been great chums. Miss Gay, going abroad with him several years ago, when he was a member of an international commission.

Hostess of Card Party.

Mrs. John E. House, of Richmond Cottage, Buckroe Beach, entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon, August 14. Those playing were Misses Helen and Lillian House, Marie Hartung, Louise Hennrichhausen, Margaret Miller, Christina von N. Rosenknecht, Mrs. William Grinnell, Mrs. Arthur Kasten, Mrs. Herman Kasten, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Louise Guy, all of Richmond.

The prize winners were Miss Louise Hennrichhausen and Miss Christina von N. Rosenknecht. Other present were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Grazer and daughter, Selma; Mrs. Felix Iradella, wife of Bandmaster, Felix Iradella, of National Soldiers' Home, Va.; and Miss Norma Hagemann, of Richmond.

Dance at Amelia.

A very attractive dance was given last Saturday in the Amelia Hotel. Music from Richmond was secured, and the many visiting girls enjoyed dancing until a late hour. Among those present were Misses Katherine and Gertrude Plummer, Miss Mason, Miss Jennie, of Fredericksburg; Miss Norfleet, Mr. and Mrs. Randall, of New York; Miss Jessie Palmer, Miss Hester Palmer, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Englehart, Mrs. Conrad Hutchinson, of Richmond; Miss Lucy Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. G. Carrington Mosely, also of Richmond; George Jefferson, Irving Kennedy, Stanford, Norfolk; Mr. Wright, Miss Randall and others.

Thornton-Jones. Mrs. R. J. Jones announces the engagement of her daughter, Marjorie Selden, to Alvin Herbert Thornton, of Charleston, W. Va. The marriage will take place in the early autumn.

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. Howard Hoke and Miss Annie Hoke, who have been at Kalamazoo, Michigan, Va. for the past few weeks, and visited Miss Jane Gilkison, at Hillside, have returned to Richmond.

Mrs. Mary Carrington, Miss Carrington and Mrs. William Carrington, of Charlotte County, Va., who spent several days of last week in Richmond, have returned home. Miss Carrington's approaching marriage to Mr. Elizabeth, of Norfolk, Va., will be an event of social importance and interest.

Mrs. Otis Smart and son, Jesse, left Thursday to join Mrs. Smart's mother, near Durham, N. C. Later Mrs. Smart and Jesse will go to Los Angeles, Cal., for the winter.

Mrs. R. B. Valentine, who spent the week at Greenwell and points in vicinity, was expected to return yesterday.

Mrs. Arthur J. Jeffroy, who has had a delightful summer abroad with relatives, will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Jeffroy at Capehart, at Westhampton, where she and her husband and children are now residing, and occupy an apartment in town with her brothers, John Montague, for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas M. Rutherford gave a beautiful dinner party at White Sulphur Springs in honor of Miss Rutherford, Rutherford and Miss Frances Wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Duke left this city last Wednesday for Niagara Falls, where they will spend ten days.

Mrs. A. O. Hurch will leave tomorrow for New York, Boston and Hartford, Conn., to visit friends and relatives. Afterward she expects to tour the entire New England States, and will not return home until late in the fall.

Mrs. Harvey Wilson and Miss Mary Wilson are at Craze Hall, Atlantic City.

Miss John W. Tyler and daughter, Elizabeth, who have been spending the early part of August at Mountain Lake, will return home the middle of this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Woodson McGuire left yesterday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McGuire, Houston, Va. Before returning she will visit relatives and friends in Danville and Lynchburg, Va.

Miss Lucy Shelton, of 724 North Twenty-fifth Street, leaves this week to spend some time at Chase City, Va.

Miss Ethel Chasabow Watkins, who is spending the month of August at Squibb Island, on the Coast of Maine, will visit Boston and the White Mountains before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Goodwin, of 224 Monument Avenue, have taken an apartment at the Chateaufort for the approaching winter.

Mrs. Charles Farrell leaves this week to visit her mother, Mr. Huggins, of Norfolk County, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Norman left yesterday to spend two weeks at Blue Ridge Springs.

Mrs. Lloyd Freeman, of Norfolk, is spending August with her parents.

GORDONSVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Gordonsville, Va., August 17.—The annual horse show and luncheon given at the Hotel Gordonville, by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dapunt, took place on Saturday, and was, as it always is, a most enjoyable occasion. Nothing was omitted that could give pleasure or add to the comfort of the many guests that responded to Mr. and Mrs. Dapunt's invitations. Most of the good horses of the county were shown, and the winner of the cup, one in each class, were greeted with hearty applause. The class that created the greatest interest was one of champion hackneys, owned by Mr. Dupont. No serious accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the day. Mrs. W. Wilbur Osborne's horse fell with her in the hunt team, and Wallace Sanford had an ugly tumble riding in the class for green hunters, but both escaped without serious injury.

Miss Bald, of England, is spending some time at "Montpelier," the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dupont.

Mrs. Somerville Grey and her young son, Mr. Andrew Grey, of Parkersburg, are visiting at "Springfield," Albemarle County.

Miss Mary Ruffin returned to Petersburg on Monday, after a visit of some time at Rea Cliff, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert M. McFarlane, and at "Springfields," where she visited her brother, J. E. W. Ruffin.

L. Aaron, Ladies' Tailor, 403 East Grace Street

I take this opportunity to announce my grand opening August 17, 19, 20, 21, 1912.

Have just returned from New York, where I visited new Grand Central Palace and Fashion Exhibition of American and European styles, and wish to state that I have brought back with me the most authoritative styles of the latest fabrics, trimmings and linings for ladies' tailored costumes for season of 1912 and 1913. Never before have the styles been so pleasing to the eye as this season, and my collection is well worthy of your early inspection.

Patrons are always assured of dependable quality, correct styles, artistic workmanship, perfect fit and good lines. Just returning from the North, my parlors being refurbished, also entire new stock coming in every day, so my opening is a little delayed, I extend an invitation to all the ladies to call and inspect my stock.

Respectfully, L. AARON.
